Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This illustrated book for beginning readers is only six chapters long. Its subjects include losing teeth, digging tunnels, observing the work habits of ants, and swinging on vines; all high interests for the children in its target audience. Mee-key is bored and sad. Mama-mo is having a busy day, and his older brother can go everywhere and do anything. Why does it take so long for a small monkey to grow bigger? However, Mee-key decides that being little has some advantages when his older brother can no longer fit on their mother's lap during a thunderstorm. Sometimes I like to be little, and sometimes I want to be big, he concludes. Little and big are both good. But when it storms, I'm happy to be little. The author is a mother of two grown daughters and a retired teacher with two degrees in elementary education.
