Happy River Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Sean Michael Thomas (illustrator). Paperback. 41 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. When little Olivia is dared to throw a rock at a nearby house by her friends, a broken window will lead to a series of important life lessons and a burgeoning friendship that will change her forever. After breaking the house's window, Olivia is confronted by the older woman who lives there, and instead of getting in trouble, she is set forth on a year-long series of dares. With a variety of dares designed to keep Olivia out of trouble, the two form a unique friendship while creating a lasting impact on each other's lives. I Dare You is a touching new children's book about friendship, doing the right thing, and following your dreams. Warm and upbeat, this endearing book by Sean Michael Thomas utilizes fun, creativity, and colorful pictures to teach valuable life lessons to young readers everywhere. With heart and love guiding every sentence, this wonderful little book is perfect for children as they begin their exploration of life. Suitable for a wide range of children, I Dare You is easy enough for those just learning to read, but it will also be an enjoyable story to read to even younger audiences. With vivid pictures, a touching plot, and a distinctive approach to convey important life lessons, I Dare You is a charming children's book that will teach as it entertains. Thomas studied both voice and theatre at the prestigious Interlochen Arts Academy in Northern Michigan. His first book, Sedikit-Sedikit Menjadi Bukit: Little by Little we Climb the Mountain, was published in 2008, and his second book, The Most Special Place on Earth, was released in 2011. Thomas currently lives and works in Moscow as a correspondent and presenter...
