Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Miscellanies, Vol. 11 The year after Mr. Emerson's death, Mr. Cabot, in editing his works, gathered into a volume the occasional writings which had never been included in previous editions, although six of them had been printed, either as pamphlets or in periodicals, long before, by the author. These were the Sermon on The Lord's Supper, the Historical Address at Concord in 1835, that at the dedication of the Soldiers Monument there in 1867, and that on Emancipation in the British West Indies, the Essay on War, and the Editors Address in the Massachusetts Quarterly Review. American Civilization had been a portion of the article of that name in the Atlantic in 1862. The Fortune of the Republic also had been printed as a pamphlet in 1874. Mr. Cabot said in his prefatory note, In none was any change from the original form made by me, except in the Fortune of the Republic, which was made up of several lectures, for the occasion upon which it was read.
