The rule also established procedures permitting the Trustee Program to remove agencies from the approved list, including an administrative review 15 process before removal. As with credit counseling providers, the Bankruptcy Act also established minimum qualification standards for debtor education providers. For example, the act stated that these entities must provide personnel with adequate experience and training and use appropriate learning materials and teaching methodologies. The act also required that the provider have adequate facilities in reasonably convenient locations or, alternatively, provide instruction by telephone or through the Internet. Debtor education providers also must keep records to permit evaluation of a courses effectiveness. The act does not require debtor education providers to be nonprofit entities. The Trustee Programs interim final rule set forth application procedures and specified the certification standards for an agencys instructors, established course procedures and recordkeeping 16 requirements, and identified the topics that the courses must include. The Trustee Program established...
