Nan A. Talese, 2010. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "William Kuhn reveals the Jackie I knew as a person and professional: serious, smart, intuitive about ideas and aesthetics, but also down to earth in the sense of understanding the potential audience for a book. In Reading Jackie I learned so much about her I didn't know, and Kuhn tells the story with such flowing grace of phrase and structure. A splendid work." -Bill Moyers "Jackie appears (as she was) a well-liked, respected colleague, often slyly funny and not given to showboating . Readers of biographies of iconic figures will eat this up . Kuhn's respectful approach would probably have met with Onassis's approval." - Library Journal "A clever, surprisingly substantial take on the life of Jaqueline Onassis . Kuhn's originality of research is striking. Many of his interviews were conducted with Jackie's colleagues, authors and friends, and they often provided him with fresh and intriguing details about her..."
