Remember me this Morning. June 27. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ comfort your heart and mind, and enrich you exceedingly. Thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work. LOOK back upon all the way in which God has made me walk, and truly I must praise Him for finding such a way for me. I did not see the way. I did not choose it. At first I thought it could not be Gods way, the hills were so high, the rocks were so large, the path was so rough, and there was so much to make me afraid. Now I see much that God meant, and I am glad--glad with great joy. The work that lies before me this day is hard, and how to do it I know not. This is as the day of death to me. Yet this very night I shall come home with a new song in my mouth, and praise God with a loud voice, neither ashamed nor afraid that men should hear my giving of thanks. Keep me this day without sin. Let my feet be kept on the right road, and my eyes fixed on the right end; then shall I do good to many, and the work of day shall be followed by sleep like infants slumbers, pure and God bless my friends, comfort them, save them, and grant unto us a happy meeting beyond the...
